

Midland College Athletics

Midland College's Fagnan Named WJCAC MVP, Coleman Selected as Coach of the Year

Chaparral Baseball
Monday, May 20, 2013
Midland, TX

Midland College sophomore Jeremie Fagnan (Calgary, Alberta, Canada) was recently selected as the 2013 Player of the Year for the Western Junior College Athletic Conference. Fagnan who played firstbase and outfield for the Chaps, led the WJCAC in steals (32) and RBI (71) this season. He is currently 28th in the NJCAA in batting average (.414), tied for 1st with 71 RBI and is 15th in steals (32). Fagnan has appeared in each of the Chaparral's 60 games this season, leading the team in batting average, RBI, SB and is second in OB% (.484) and second in HRs.

Joining Fagnan on the All-WJCAC first team are sophomores Blair Beck (Midland, TX), Matt Reyes (Midland, TX) as well as freshman Chris Shaw (Winnipeg, Alberta, Canada). Beck played outfield while Reyes and Shaw were named for their play in the infield.

MC head coach David Coleman was named as the conference Coach of the Year for 2013. Coleman guided the Chaps to a 47-13 record, including going 28-8 in the WJCAC. Midland College won the 2013 WJCAC title, the second in team history (2002), and recently won the 2013 NJCAA Region V Baseball Tournament. Coleman has led the Chaparrals to their first-ever appearance in the Alpine Bank JUCO World Series in Grand Junction, CO (May 31-June 1).

Additionally, four Midland College baseball team members were chosen as members of the Honorable Mention All-WJCAC team. Honorable Mention selections include sophomore catcher Hunter Redman, sophomore middle infielder Joel Atkinson and sophomore pitchers Jason Zgardowski and Jared Robinson.

MC Chap Jeremie Fagnan

MC Head Coach David Coleman

Forrest L. Allen
Midland College Athletics
432-685-6436
fallen@midland.edu