Midland College Cager Ade, Earns All-American Recognition

Lady Chaparral Basketball
April 17, 2013
Midland, TX

Congratulations goes out the Midland College's Achiri Ade on being selected to the 2013 NJCAA Women's Division I Basketball All-American first team. Ade, of Baltimore, MD, led the Lady Chaps to the NJCAA National Tournament this season where they went 1-1. MC recorded an overall record of 27-8 and were the WJCAC tri-champions this season. The Lady Chaps also won the 2013 NJCAA Region V Tournament to send them to the national tournament in March.

Achiri played in 31 of a possible 35 games this season for head coach Ron Jones. She averaged 14.1 points, 12.5 rebounds, two blocks and one assist per game this season. Ade was named Most Valuable Player for the Western Junior College Athletic Conference and NJCAA Region V.

Ade is the ninth Lady Chap basketball athlete to earn NJCAA All-American honors.
