Midland College Set to Host 2013 WNIT

Midland College Lady Chaparrals
Women's National Invitational Tournament
November 21-23, 2013
Midland, TX

The MC Lady Chaps are poised to host the annual WNIT, beginning Thursday, November 21st at the Al G. Langford Chaparral Center on the Midland College campus. This year's event features four of the nation's top 20 women's basketball teams, in an eight team tournament field. Joining the #18 Midland College Lady Chaparrals are #1 ranked Trinity Valley Community College (Athen, TX), #2 Central Arizona College (Coolidge), #4 Chipola College (Marianna, FL) along with Angelina College (Lufkin, TX), Cloud County Community College (Concordia, KS), Odessa College (TX) and Salt Lake Community College (UT).

The WNIT has been called "the best junior college women's basketball event in the nation, outside of the national tournament itself". The tournament, which was the brainchild of MC head coach Ron Jones, is a prime recruiting stop for university coaches looking to enhance their programs.

Action begins on Thursday @ 2:00 p.m. with Angelina College vs. Cloud County Community College followed by a 4:00 p.m. match up between Trinity Valley Community College vs. Central Arizona College. At 6:00 p.m. the Odessa College Lady Wranglers will take on Chipola College and in the 8:00 p.m. contest the Midland College Lady Chaps led by returnees Gabriela Martins, Catherine Kruschke, Sabrina Ochoa and Diamalises Rivera, will host the Salt Lake Community College Bruins.
