The Midland College softball team made their 2013 home opener, taking on the Cisco Junior College Lady Wranglers at Lady Chap Field. Midland College, now 6-4 on the season, took both games of the double-header with scores of 7-1 and a thrilling 12-11 win in the bottom of the seventh on a single by Earnysha Scroggins. Scroggin's single down the third base line scored pinch runner Leanna Meyer.

In the first game freshman pitcher Shelby Weissenbach recorded the win. Fellow freshmen Pililani Smith-Keopuhiwa and Taylor Daniels each had solid offensive performances going 2 of 2 and 2 of 4 respectively. Smith-Keopuhiwa recorded a solo HR in the contest.

In game two Weissenbach came in to relieve starting pitcher Holly Herrington who went six complete innings. Weissenbach picked up the win in relief. Offensively had several standouts including Daniels (4 of 5), Ka'iulani Kamai (3 of 5), Gaby Muniz (2 of 4), Smith-Keopuhiwa (2 of 4) and Weissenbach (2 of 4). Kamai slammed a solo home run in the contest for MC.

The Lady Chaps return to action on Thursday, February 14th in a 1:00 p.m. double header versus Trinidad State Junior College (CO) at the Lady Chap Field. Midland College also hosts the Midland College Softball Classic on Friday and Saturday at Ulmer Park (Freddie Ezell Complex).

The Ladies will conclude their long weekend of competition on Sunday with an 11:00 a.m. double dip versus Western Nebraska Community College at Lady Chap Field.
